Hi,

I was told I needed to get "Revelations", which I've tried and like some of the features. Its buggy sometimes, showing teammates or enemy with wrong color names in chat and on their avatars.

I see people kicking and bowing, I havent figured it out yet.

Then someone tells me I need "scripts" I can get on the forums.

I'd always thought the extra tank thing was cheating, but mods do it on Jelly servers so I guess its OK there.

I just wanna know how to bow and kick and what the other things are.

Are these the same scripts I download at renegadewiki.com? I thought that was just for running a server.

PS., Anyone running CLUB CARNAGE in their rotation? I'd loved that map, I hosted a NO KILLING ON STAGE server, was lotsa fun having that as a DMZ

Thanks in advance, I couldnt find anything on SEARCH here

Tell me more about the "revelations", please. Use your numpad to do the bowing and kicking.

oops I meant Resurrection, not revelation. Got it mixed up with EVE Online. Whatever that other build was with the green broken glass/whatever background. I'm at work at the moment & its not installed on this comp. I love C&C:R online so much, every time I couldnt find my serial number, I went out & bought another copy. I must have 12 serial numbers

I'll try that numpad thing when I get home. I thought I'd tried that before. Thanks!!!

But yeah just yesterday I kept being sniped by people I'd thought were teammates because I usually look at their names and not the avatar. Red-named Havoks headshooting me over and over, haha, and yellow-colored chat from teammates while I'm NOD. Very confusing!

Use your numpad to do the bowing and kicking.

Revelations is a great name for any anti-cheat lol

Scripts? Maybe they meant Scripts 3.4.4 or Scripts 2.9.2? Both are at ren.game-maps.net , under official updates I think.
