It does not happen often, but to your bad luck it happened when you just started playing lol.

I have no idea what's going on, but I really hope it'll be back real soon.

There's always something with Westwood Online...
But no worries! GTA 4 is out for PC!

No clue why the outage. :/

I've been trying to find something about it on XWIS's forums, but found nothing *recent* - I did find the topic about Renegade's server move...back in July though 0o lol

Are people still having connection issues?

Our servers still cannot connect...

I think that I know why it was offline, yesterday I was playing and I went to the chatroom and I didn't see the Usual "Player.". DXHack or something he was just gone, I think that it was the TT team resetting the whole thing making it ready for the new patch.

I don't suppose anyone has an explanation that is based around fact and/or logic by any chance?
