You could of course install scripts 3.4.4, unless you need 2.9.2 for rgh...

Doesn't work for me.

Not bothering trying to explain it either.

I get my character to find some nice clean bitch up in my strip club to give me a lap dance. I then proceed to travel around the city of San Casina in my pimp-mobile, aka the Ferrari 360, in search of bitches who are steppin' outta line and not givin their daddy the respect he deserves. If a bitch still don't give me no respect, I choke a bitch and go bury her in the desert.

Well, for those downloading it I hope you enjoy it

Actually you can still play without the scripts just some things won't work without them.

Actually you can still play without the scripts just some things won't work without them.

For instance, dying 1 sec after spawn?

You need to have our custom scripts.dll 3.4.4 installed, or you will just die and be unable to get past the first room.
