That's a very nice set! And the video does a great job showcasing each one.

Haha nice "MP3" Havoc(Sansa View is the name of that MP3 Player).

EDIT: Actually now that I look at it closer it looks like the Sansa View, but not quite: Read my other post 2 posts down.

Tbh I don't know how it could be mistaken for an ipod, but it does not look exactly like the Sansa

View it's missing the button(see image below)

Sansa View: http://www.techshout.com/images/sandisk-sansa-view.jpg

Ipod(considering none of them look like the Sansa View, imo, I just decided to provide the link for the google image search):

PS. I also like that Skullkid one

EDIT: Di3HardNL did you pick the MP3 Player on Havoc's back randomly or did you actually want to use the Sansa View, or did you just make this one up(considering what's on the screen and the length of the screen it makes me think you based it off a Sansa View)? Yes I know this is a dumb question I'm just curious

(shh about necropost)
The pack off of your site for this is corrupt and goes up to the jumpjet character, the .tga for the model is corrupt and it does not work.
Please fix the one on your site/upload it to filefront again.
Thanks.

EDIT:Redownloaded, it was a slight error with the first download procedure. It works now.
And it's awesome.
