Alright. I discover this when I am jumping around the base not helping my mates. But I think noone know it yet. So hopefully it helps. As they says, a picture means a thousand words.... here are the pictures...   First you need to be NOD. Get a blackhand cloak unit works best.   Then u jump on the GDI logo.   Press forward to jump again. And you should go up without any problems.   There is it. Your very own nuke corner.Enjoy the view from the another side.Ooo, and one more thing, kill thoese Hot Wires running around the barrack.   Thanks to ^B^ and [LnZ]xKiddoX for helping out with the jumping.[March 31, 2002: Message edited by: [aN9m0]]

Please make your pics. smaller (less KB).It took me more than 10mins to d/l and I have 256K cable. And some of the pics couldn't load.Then I tried at your account, but that also took me far too much time.So plz, make them a bit smaller. Thank you.Grtz,{WFS} Knight3X7

The pictures are very very clear, u jump from the walls behind the barrack in the map, only this map works.

I've noticed this when I put a map change in the mplayer practice. Yet, I don't believe a lot of people know this.There's also a very hidden place in Field, I saw an enemy hiding somewhere but I couldn't find him. Sudden a hotwire looked where he was and he ran out from behind the water fall (not the one way, at the base of the level you can get behind the water there as well). Great for snipers.
