Seems pretty messed up to me.
Used to be a reliable resource.

Last time I used it everything worked fine. It is EA though so you never really know from minute to minute.

EA cleaned the whole ftp bin.
The renegade hub doesn't exist anymore.
I suggest we get some kind of SVN repository in which we can store the tools, mods and all other required stuff.

Because the tools and other required stuff need version control because they've changed plenty of times, right?

The WW ftp still works... :/ lol Though, I think most things can be found at www.game-maps.net

When starting from ftp.westwood.com
I could not navigate my way to ftp.westwood.com/pub/renegade

The latter still works fine however.
For a second I thought it was gone.

In other news, what does westwood/RenegadeDebugInstaller.zip do?
I expect it to be nothing of value.

Maybe it's on a dns round-robin with EA's ftp? I checked it like last week-ish and there was nothing. (no renegade folders/etc)

I check it just now, I see the entire ftp intact. wtf EA? :/

The same happened to me yesterday, I checked it and it was all of EA's crap, and then like 10 minutes later it has all of the stuff it usually does.

even if they DO take it down, who the fuck has a right to complain?

it's practically been an ACT OF GOD that they've kept it up this long, anyhow. seriously, there's DUNE 2 shit on there (last time i checked). that game is almost twenty years old, for fuck's sake.

The comments under that video prove just how over half of the 'gaming community' is completely retarded.

Quote:lol they dont even deserve my anger EA has ruined rockstar. gta iv pc was the most disfunctional piece of shit released to date. There 2 patches fix 1. bowling LOL and 2. adds 1 item to graphics options which is water quality which really doesnt fucking do anything. unofficially there 2 patches disabled all trainers and most addons to date because there worried about longevity, fuck you its the only way i can remotely like your failage. point is 70% of people who installed gtaiv couldnt run it.

The 'blame EA' bandwagon was already stupid, but man, this takes the fucking cake.

Game-Maps.NET has pretty much it all.
