Doubt it's true about the extra missions, flying vehicles are coming, probably more stuff like mods. Not to mention C&C mode. There's a ton of stuff after single player and being relatively good at multi, you can always get better.

Belive me, there are noextra missions inthe new patch. The only way we are gonna get any new missions is with an exp pack, and I don't think that'll be comin anytime soon.

Try beating the game with 5 stars on hard. The Ship mission will occupy you for a long long time.

I tried using on gun (Raptor auto rifle) through the whole game, but I got wasted by a rocket soldier in Tommarrow's Technology Today.

Don't lie to the l33t, you'll get caught.
