I finally finished it, was very lazy, also edited some stuff since the last release added animation on the chem sludge, volt rifle, made beacons, added flashing lights to beacons etc.
some Before/After pics

A big pic containing most of the weps

THIS IS THE LATEST VERSION

- old link removed - I hope it works this time...

Looking good (from the screenshots, haven't tried them out yet).

Is it me though, or is the Flamethrower missing the 'spark flame' emitter (right?) to 'ignite' the liquid to a flame? I know its purely a visual thing, but meh

Second, Has the voltgun less 'electricity' in the middle of its rifle, compared to the default voltgun?

Also, are those worldmodels, or are they First person too?

I can't make the flame right

Also the voltgun electricity moves slower don't know how to change that too nice, but they aren't all fully working... they don't show muzzle flash or show that they're recoiling at all what do you mean bigger? i tried to make them as close as possible (with the transparent version of the old weps as a template) the only thing, ramjet is longer on the back

Ive Noticed that some of the weapons are bigger myself. Its mainly the Ramjet and the PIC. Its amazing that Sydney can hold such a massive gun on her back.

ok, then i will scale them down a bit in the next release, i also noticed that this is the previous version (i think i said this) so give some feedback, suggestions, bugs also i think it misses the auto rifle's front muzzle texture, and maybe they ion flash texture.

3rd edit! also ye, you could delete the old one no problem

The "Updated" link in the first post is only for the chem and the ion beacon. The old link with the rest of the weapons was deleted.

I downloaded the old one, and they all seem to work fine to me.

Error, can you please reupload the appropriate files? I don't know what happened, it might be my ISP, or me doing moderating work at 1:00 AM but I've made a mistake. Sorry.

none of the weapons have a muzzle flash in Gmax except repair gun and rocket launcher (funny how the hl2 crossbow does and others don't)
