I believe it's time for a fresh face in the Global Moderator crowd- a Canadacdn face.

I argue that I should become global moderator in order to ensure the security and prosperity of Renegade Public Forums. Currently all of our current global mods aside from Doitle (who does not visit the forum very often) are based in Europe or the United Kingdom, leaving our forums vulnerable to spam or other bullshit quite often when they are offline.

Secondly, why is Warranto still a global moderator? He hasn't visited Renforums since October! I believe I would be the ideal candidate to fill this vacant position.

Canadacdn for Global Moderator '09 is your ideal choice for Global Moderator.

Not to take sides, but have you seen him be a moderator anywhere else? He does an excellent job at Rp2, and has for a few years now.

Not saying hes bad I know hes a great mod over there but iv seen some stuff here that most mods would not do

- editing other post with rude things
- locking every topic that does not need to be locked (spam fest or not)

and ya

well maybe its just the spam fest

if hes does that stuff only in spam fest then id say he be a great mod and other parts of the fourms

True enough, I actually momentarily forgot entirely he was already a spam fest mod.

One would hope he'd have the maturity to keep that shit to the spamfest, like mostly everyone else does a good job of.

Seeing as Canadacdn is one of the most active members on the forums and a few other moderators are only partially active, I think Canadacdn would make a great moderator.

Oh, and by the way, constantly spamming this request for months on end as you have been doing is the perfect example of why you should NOT be a global moderator as you clearly lack the maturity necessary for the position.

If you don't put on a mature attitude as a normal forum member, the administration will certainly not take your plea for moderator privileges seriously. Especially with the attitude of "It's just the spam forum, nobody takes it seriously", that's just what they don't want to be hearing.

Asking for Global Moderator just shows you're a bit on the power-hungry side. Also, aren't you already a moderator of the spam forum...?

Even though i appreciate canadacn a lot and that he has a valid point about timezones, I personally don't think we need more moderators.

We've come from a period where there was hardly any moderating at all to a period where there's a good staff that reacts within hours (sometimes even within minutes). I've noticed change on renforums, I believe in change, change I believe in!
