Before you say anything, I used the search function, found a thread, and the link was dead. (I didn't want to bump it because of a specific conversation that was going on in the thread)

Anyway, can anyone give me a link to download the 3DS Max 8 trial? Not 9 or 2009, I want 8.

The link on Renhelp is dead. Google doesn't give any useful results. And the website only links to the latest version.

10 days ban to Madrackz for posting Warez. Rapidshare ain't exactly the first location to look for trial versions, is it?

I don't think so, but it's certainly against forum rules to posts links to key gens. Naughty naughty Madracks.

You know, rapidshare is a legitimate file hosting website. It doesn't have anything to do with the fact other people use it to host warez. In fact it makes a conscious effort to delete and ban users who upload wares.

So.. banning someone for using rapidshare is kind of... hateful. I think you should change the reason for the ban to "Posting a keygen." rather than "using rapidshare."

good luck banning him.

2 days ago we needed to ban him from our servers and website because of the actions he did while claiming to be on the WGC Staff on other forums.

i was searching for the ip's he used at our forum and in the server, also searched for his serial and the result was shocking!!

The serial:

It doesn't matter. Madrackz will respect his ban. He's not a bad kid, just makes bad decisions from time to time. He also knows that if he doesn't respect it, he'll end up like Scrin, doubling his ban periods on all accounts I can find from him.

He knew it contained a keygen, he deserved the ban. Arguing over what the title of the ban should be on this level is a little bit stupid. Give Goztow a break, the ban was justified. C'mon people, common sense tells you that posting links to keygens is going to get you in trouble.
