Sounds like a stupid idea. Certainly won't make me buy any of their food, alhtough I don't think there even is one near me, heh.

I don't get what the big deal with that place is. The first time Crimson took me to a Jack in the Box

I can't say I was all that impressed.

Mediocre restaurant, but certainly nostalgic. Remember when they almost went out of business years ago?

I never even heard of them up until a few years ago. I've never eaten there before.

The commercial is a running campaign that gets people to check their website to see an update on his condition.

In the commercial itself it shows that the doctor was sidetracked from the patient because of the "good food" he enjoyed at the restaurant.
