its maybe a n00b question but i have no idea how fraps work in the fraps window stands that i must press "F9" to start and end the video but i dont find them in fraps folder fraps can record only games, or any other things that are fullscreen.

open up fraps and press the options/record/video tab and look what hotkey it is at. Then go ingame and press the hotkey, when finish press it again so it stops recording, if u use the trial version, it can only record pieces up to 30 seconds does anyone have a good solution to reduce the fps drop it causes?

or how to make it as low resolution as possible?

PS:i have the full version
