It might looks like glowing but that is just the bloom effect I am using

Are you THAT used to advantage skins that you don't see that yellow even without any glow is advantage enough over the original?

@GFX: nice work, good looking
@gameplay: another advantage skin available

Err I know it is an advantage skin but did I ever mention this is NOT an advantage skin?
Its just the same as the spongebob c4, which is also bright yellow.

Blame the makers of the Mario game for making the star yellow nice to see you got rid of your 'see what building is mined from miles away, also no traps are possible' proxys to replace them with another dumb skin involving your favorite video game (y) hope it all fits together with your transparant doors and other geek shit that u have running.

Please look at my new doors

Flaming other members is against the rules and can certainly get you banned.

Dude you are right that these are advantage skins, the fact that I am not banned is because people respect what I am doing. What the fuck are you doing in a MOD forum since you only play pure? Because I know that you don't use any skins.
You can be lucky for not being banned already for swearing everywhere.

Gozy gave him permission to post this (not that Gozy doesn't think advantage). Yea, I guess I am part of the unofficial Di3HardNL fanclub, I would use a lot of his stuff if I did not have to use RG. Also I just hate people that come into threads that they have no interest in just to flame.

I like Renegade's default textures, if someone doesn't that person still has the ability, for now, to change skins, and that is fine, I can't think of the last time that I was killed by proxy c4/timed c4 that was tossed on the ground anyways.
