I don't know how to get the skins to work. I mean I download them, then unzip it, then put it into the Data folder in Renegade. I was able to get 1 to work, but that was it, the rest must be more complex. If you have any answers on how to get these freakin things working right please reply asap. Oh yea, not advertising but the place I get my skins is called www.xra2x.com. (are the broken skins or something.. but they do have lots)Thanks.

quote: Don't blink. I kinda have to...otherwise my eyes dry out to little raisins. What an insensitive sig...How'd you like it if I said don't pee in my sig and you listened? You'd be walking (or gotta pee dancing) around all the time and people would point at you and say things like, "Look at that guy, why doesn't he just pee already? Doesn't he know that ignoring your bladder causes kidney damage?" Well, don't come crawling to me when you need a kidney transplant buddy.
