Its been said before, but after just playing a game where I waxed half a dozen stealth tanks, light tanks, and mobile art with Sydney I must say that she is a great "bang for the buck" character (get your mind out of the gutter) 150 credits and the tiberium auto rifle is pretty deadly against armor...and infantry too especially since they get the "poison" after effect. Her nemesis are those darn mutants tho [ April 09, 2002: Message edited by: Blazer ]

Who wouldn't like to fire their railgun into Sydney's Weapons Factory? Seriously, Sydney dominates early game. Those engie rushes don't stand a chance (unless they have a Templar with them )
