So are you now going to update all the links to your old website, which you posted in previous topics?

Nice total PP modification, BTW.

BUMP:

I had these a long time ago, but after many reformats I don't have these interior's anymore.

if you could re-upload them di3 - that'd be great.

Thanks.

All your other interior's as well please, I'm picturing a huge pack with all of them in. <3

Well it uses material of C&C Reborn (my work for the door as an example) without any agreement, I made sure it was removed.

It's not the likes of the doors that are wanted. It's the building interiors - which anyways di3 didn't include the doors which you made.
