Everyone has a different opinion, so you should probably just make your own.

My advice: Go to advanced game listings and order the servers by player count. While glitches make it not entirely accurate that's the best representation of popularity there is that's not tainted by personal e-penises.

Well I don't have Renegade still installed and I have no idea where the CD is.. lol. So I'm trying to figure out my old favorite AOW Server so I can contact some old friends. I know it wasn't n00bstories, or n00bless, and I think it used to be ren-archive.com

Its very strange how there are many unused servers in the middle of the Advanced Game Listings nobody plays in them.

There's only like 10 or so "active" servers, it shouldn't be hard to figure out which.

Perhaps you can find it here:
<http://www.blackintel.org/?page=xwiswol>
It lists all servers that are connected to XWIS.

Might be down in the next 10 to 15 minutes, server needs updates

Ren-Archive closed down and was adobted by Jelly some time ago. The server is now called Jelly AOW2.
