Hello, i've found out how to create an account on C&C Renegade, problem is; before i knew how to make one, i entered in random desired usernames and passwords. As i entered in another random username and password, a MOTD popped up saying, 'you have reached the limit of creating an account' etc. I was stoned . It gave me all the ramdon username i've entered, thats was before when i didnt kno how to make one BUT it doesn't give me the password .

So, the question sums up, is there a way to delete some of my existing accounts? It shows i've reached my limit of 9 accounts.

I've read Gonzy's sticky about deleting an account, it didnt work. Everytime i keep making a new one, it says 'Connecting' then 'failed to load. unable to connect and firewall negotiation compelte'.

Thanks -

You can only del nicks if u made them at least 30 days ago. Use the function to reset the pass, see sticky. Another reason not to get stoned.
