Reminds me of the SoQ player(i think it was SoQ) who was bragging about his skill and produced a screenshot of his desktop + renegade and his clickbot running in the background

I sadly lost the picture when my hard drive crashed

It isn't the first time. A while ago someone even posted a SS of their desktop with *cheat name removed*sitting right there.

Most servers don't wait for someone like that to get cought first. Once we see that kind of thing we just add to the ban list.
