i would like to first say that the reason they wanted to make renegade x . is so cnc renegade can die and i for one vote that renegade x not be completed !!renegade x is nothing but a boat load of god damn shit that is basically being made because they do not know how well the original command and conquer renegade was now why do you think im so pissed at the moment. Well it is because of all the god damn stuff that the renegade x team doesnt know so well about the original command and conquer renegade renegade is a dream come true so i say if you wanna piss another fucking game off piss halo or doom 3 off but NOT COMMAND AND CONQUER RENEGADE

You realize they were joking, right? That it's an APRIL FOOLS video?

In no way is a mod on another game going to kill the original Renegade. As sexy as Renegade X is, it's just not possible. Stop worrying, shit, this is a pretty retarded topic.

renx will only divide the player base on ren which is already not really high lol... TT is comin with a big update on graphics and everything and im sure despite it being made "exactly" as renegade, its still an entire new way of shooting and other things so its really not that much like an updated renegade ;/

I'd be for the Renx idea if it was a year or 2 ago but this now is just stupid imo

Yes, long live Renegade. Long live getting sniped at by some douchebag facing the ground in his base. Long live wall-hugging. Long live War Factory glitches, wall lag, and getting stuck to shit. Long live C4 glitching, and using the PT's from outside!

I can't stop laughing at this thread! Nice one

Anyway, Renegade X is nothing but a clone of Renegade with new features and some improvements.

It makes literally NO sense to not like Renegade X because you prefer the original.. And when you said that Renegade X team doesn't know about how good Renegade can be, that is also wrong. The devs on that team have been with Renegade, through thick and thin, ever since the release of its demo 8 years ago. Can you say the same thing?

Renegade now is in no way as good of a game as it was when it was first originally released. Back when there were no game play standards and every strategy was intuitive and unique.. not this "omg donate me so we can mass tanks lolk?!11!?" that we got now.

Renegade X is simply attempting to bring the good old days of Renegade back while still keeping its current form intact. And it is even improving its graphics, physics, and overall game engine while they are at it.

I see absolutely no reasonable or logical reason to hate Renegade X for reasons that it goes against Renegade. The only way I can see someone hating Renegade X is if they:

1. Don't like UT3
2. Don't like Renegade
3. Don't have the hardware to run it

I can't think of any other reasons..

Anyway, nice post, you make me laugh.
