Well I think its finished, I hope you will like it I took me some time. I am releasing as a beta because there are still some bugs in it. And maybe there are more of which I don't know.

- There are no bullet holes when you shoot on anything
- I have to change the .tga textures into .dds.
- Change the map name because its a dumb name, only I have no clue how I should name it

Here is a video! I added the sounds afterwards by the way. You won't hear them when you are playing the map is actually really cool the only bad thing that you dont said are the stairs i think they are big and in test version they were laggy

Looks pretty good bro. This would definitely add a different feel of sniping to the game.

I will fix the last things when some server is interested in it

I am already working on my new project!
This will be my new project, and I will start a new thread once I got some progress
