Looks cool. Good job
The detail for the for the actual APC is a bit too faded but still GJ.

Nice, ill try it.

offtopic; Hmm I'll ask this again, is that HUD modeled after G-Police?

Sorta reminds me of the halo a bit. Not my style, still nice

The apc texture is a bit too transparent; you can see the default texture underneath. Still nice, just that's a bit off.

You can keep the detail without having the yellow APC still slightly being visible. Afaik this can be done by changing the stock skin layer to a grayscale layer.

Then, make the new skin layer blend with the grayscale layer.

Nope it isn't my HUD Scrin made it for me some while ago. It is his work to whoever or whereever he sends it is his choice.

I like how you guys talk about HUDS like they're some kind of valuable object that only cool people get. Like it matters.

It's not photoshopped

Afaik that bloom effect is created with an overlay effect in Renegade, resulting in everything getting "bloomed" (menus etc too).
