I made some skate attributes and put them in a map. Also I made a havoc scating which you can control

Thanks to Reloaded (Relax) for helping me test them.

When its finished you will be able to play this map on his server WWW.BUILDINGSERVER.TK lol yes, I was making the movie and wanted to add some skate music.

So I searched for Tony Hawk on youtube and found some awesome skater music

I would suggest, before you work more on the map, try playing around with the vehicle settings for some cooler physics that would be alot funnyer
