Ok, i ripped UT3 and the textures are awesome!
They are high quality, most of them are 1024x1024.
Previews(not an actual size)

So what you think?
Should i release it? its about 350 mb. 718 files.
If anyone gonna use it, please tell me so i wont release it for nothing.

Awesome, maybe cut it down about before you release though. Like those pictures of the character's faces aren't needed.

I'd definitely use it. But yeah, the characters and stock photos aren't really needed. Try and cut it down in size a bit.

Of course release it!! I would love to use this!!!!

I don't mean to be rude, but why do people ask if they should release something? Why not just release it instead of wasting your time with this kind of pointless thread? Sorry, it's just annoying, especially with something so cool to be released.

They could be used for backgrounds and such. Not just for Renegade skinning.

I dunno, it seems like they want to tease people or something... in reality there's absolutely no reason to ASK if something should be released... just release the damn thing!

On topic: that's pretty damn cool

Ok, i'm releasing it in packs.
Edit: They are not all of the UT3 textures. I play the game and this program captures what textures i see so some maps didnt have other textures :/

They ask if they should release because sometimes it is a bit of work to pack them all into one file, so ask first to see if any one will download before doing uploading for nothing
