I guess you did a simple color change on the whole skin?

Deselect the arms in the texture when you want to change the color of the clothes, because now when you changed the color his arms look kinda purple :/

Nah he could have changed the color, then use the history brush tool (brush with a line) on the parts that want to be original

there was a problem with the trousers and the jacket

I wanted to make it medium purple BUT it got dark

And i wanted the trousers to be a violet colour and it ended up as yellow try experimentating, for example:

<http://ren.game-maps.net/index.php?act=view&id=1241>

(i also made a one with havoc's face which was too strange to use lol)

I also changed the hotwire pants to the engine pants and changed teh jacked a bit, looked awesome.

Try using more imagination
