1. thats the old apc
2. there is a many diff between show ss of scrins stuff and release his stuff
3. and now think about it: you make a cool model and just give it to 1 of your friend he gave it to someone else cause the other guy have a cool weapon model.
you and the other guy become friends for 1 or 2 weeks then you hate each other and he releases your stuff cause he have it from your friend just example maybe not good understandable

In my opinion, NEVER show anything, even a SCREENSHOT, if you're not going to release (or be willing to). If you aren't, there's no POINT in showing it off unless you're a braggart.
