If your low on doing this or your just messing around in sonme game this is something fun to show someone.Get an engi and place your remote c4 on a chinook, keep your remote c4 as a weapon when you go in.Get as high as you can and jump out and detonate the C4 at the same time.It realy looks like your chopper has been hit and you jump out the last second   only problem is you fall to your death   Its pretty fun to try at enemy planes 2 if you know what i mean
