obziket? I think that's the most interesting spelling of Obelisk I've seen so far. Won't whine about it though, because I'm sure ACK will do that just fine.

you can still disarm the beacon.and can you walk the whole way on all maps?The first time I tried doing that some teammate insisted on killing the harvester, seemingly oblivious of the 5 of us yelling at him to stop...

Doesn't work on all maps, but on quite a few. Actually, I think Hourglass is the only one it doesn't work on.

Repair the harvester as it comes into the base and while your repairing drop a couple mines in the path it takes into the base. Then when a sneaker tries to follow it they don't notice the c4 until it goes off. Boom "what hit me" Boom "why did I die"

This means that I do NOT post to German-language forums. Neither do I post to Swahili-language forums or Chinese-language forums.If our friend Ghost093128402938509 could study this common curtesy, I would no longer be his enemy.
