Whilst I agree that ACK can be VERY annoying, he is technically correct about the spelling of Nod, as well as most other things he drivels-on about.So he gets full points but no respect from

Yes, but if you wrote GDI on an English exam paper you would lose marks. Acronyms should always be spelt with G.D.I. full stops. If you want to be pedantic about it, then everyone who says GDI should be flamed too. But as Ack is the only person who seems to care, maybe because he has no life outside a computer, why does it matter anyway?

You can go even further, when someone says "on NOD", correct them by saying it should be "on the side of the BoN". This is nuts but hey, it's right

I didn't know the name of this forum was "English 101". If people are that hung up on the spelling here's a news flash: people don't give a rats' azz. No one's writing a term paper or a thesis for that matter. It's so petty....

The funny part of all this...if I was ACK...mission accomplished. I for one support him , but think about it. Good or bad...his name floats around the board the absolute MOST of anybody. I'd be feeling pretty **** popular...and pretty **** high and mighty right about now. If the whole NOD/Nod thing get's you all red faced and angry...go seek some F-ING COUNSELING.

The funny thing about this is that one day Aircrap is going to go to far and lose a friend, lover, or a tooth with his high and mighty BS.

Do you realize that if Aircrap typed just a single character for a post that he would use up more room than most any other poster anyway! The guy is so full of himself he's got a Renegade Resume' for a signature. In another topic, he learned how to type onto pictures so it's even worse. I think that the problem with Aircrap is that he gets stuck in the bathroom everytime nature calls because he has to adore himself in front of the mirror for a good hour or two before he comes out. He's probably got a certain pattern of movements in there too, you know because he's so **** retentative about things like Nod/NOD. He probably has a very repetitive pattern of movements if you know what I mean, all the while he is looking at his reflection and moaning in adoration."-----AircraftkillerAKA TankCmdr6 from the Renegade betaDownload my techno\trance music! <http://www.ra2mg.com/aircraftkiller/music> Crimsson is the Ownage.
