Ok you were right it regenerated into one hell of a virus...
now if i open a tab it fucks up and kills every tab i open and pop ups are wild as of most viruses i turned the pop up blocker on and im wondering if thats causing the crashing because it crashes then about 2 or 3 pop ups come up.
anyone know the issue/virus i have and any way to fix it?

Wiggle the power cord!
Try ctrl+alt+delete!
Blow in the cartridge slot!

In all seriousness, though, wipe your computer and start over. It'll give you the least headaches.
