Nothing says 'this community sucks ass' like forcing people to join its forums.

Jesus Christ!

Look at that! I've never seen something so unoriginal. You know what magican's former url was?

www.the-brotherhood.org! Even their irc address is unoriginal! "irc.magicalgaming.net"

LOL look at this:

Custom Character Request Read Me!

This is just a simple reward for contributors; Team members, bug reporters, code submitters and similar... Hint We like when our numbers in IRC grow 😊 It is meant to give you a customized character for a lower-than-normal price to give you a small edge on the battlefield.

Request
(Format comments as HTML) and use the following template:
Char:
Health/Shield:
SkinType/ShieldType:
Weapons:
Special abilities will not be granted, you may only request what the above template lists.

Char
This should be self explanatory... What character do you want?
We do not change models (how the char looks), speed, stealth or anything else like that; You get whatever comes with the chosen character.
It's ok if you don't know the preset name, we can figure it out for you.

Health/Shield
Health points and armor points.
Maximum is 300/300 to keep things fair.

SkinType/ShieldType
These control how much damage you take from specific warheads, used by various weapons.
SkinType regards your health meter, while ShieldType regards your armor meter.

Possible combinations are as follows:

SkinFlesh/ShieldKevlar
SkinFlameThrower/ShieldFlameThrower
SkinChemWarrior/ShieldChemWarrior
SkinMutant/SkinMutant

Weapons
We do not currently have a scripts class to directly grant weapons so we must use powerups instead, that said, there are a few limitations such as alternate versions of weapons. For example, the RamjetRifle powerups only has 1 round before it needs a reload, whereas the real weapon has 4 bullets in its clip.
