Some of you know me, some of you do not. I am David Anderson, owner of DCOM Productions. My purpose here today is to simply extend my support to the Renegade community. This is not a new community of any sort, just an extension of our already existing support for Renegade and Scripts.dll C++ Support among our own products.

Quote:For the first time in our little history, DCOM Production's is proud to present the first and official Command & Conquer Renegade subsite, with download and support information for our largest product lines, the Lua Plugin and Yet Another Renegade Regulator. As it stands, this site's goal is small and simplistic, this the single page design with minimal layout and information. However, this is a stepping stone for our support to a legacy product that brought us to where we are now.
