There's alot of xwis names that would be great for servers and would give new servers (like mine) a chance but aren't being used and are wasting away. Do the owners of these nick names even play anymore? Are they just wasting away? Is it possible to retrieve some of them if they aren't being used anymore?

If anyone owns any of these xwis nick names or know who does please reply and let me know:

a and a0 are not possible afaik due to the 3-character nick restriction (I believe) Jelly owns a000000 and uses this for the Sniper sever (Though that's not running right now AFAIK)

As for the others, I don't know, I do know Tsolutions offers some nicknames when you but a server from them, what those are though, I don't know.

I have these nicks.

I do have plans for these nicks, they just arnt in use at the moment.

EDIT: as prulez said, 0p-0y are currently our 'free' nicks that are available to go for tsolutions customers. That arnt currently in use.

We have 0l to black-cell. and 0z to kamuix for free.
