Is it just me.. Or do you always end up being on the worst team you can ever imagine when you autojoin? It's a conspiracy.. if you have a rank under 7500 I swear WW has something in the game that puts you on the team with everyone that has 30,000+ and has never played an FPS before, or renegade. I'm tired of getting the highest score in the game, but only 0 points on the ladder. You should still get some points if you do really good and lose. Renegade is a team game, so if you're one of the best there is and they suck, you lose. So it makes it not a team game.. makes it a 'which team has the most good people wins' game. The ladder is really ... There's a lot of games where I'm the best there.. but my teammates all have the lowest score, so it's like: yellowredredredredredredredyellowyellowyellowyellowyellowlt annoys the hell out of me.. and I still get 0 points.

yea i know, i know my rank isn't high, because i couldn't care less because it changes every week, so i don't bother to get a really high rank....i get put on the winning side all the time, because my rank, and it won't help that team all the time

Some of us have poor rank due to the fact we have a 56k connection. Makes it hard to play a good game with only 8 or 16 players. But as for your original post you are right on the placement during games. Only way to go is with a clan. TEAMWORK is the key.
