Alright.. was playing a game... I had 650 less than the top person in the game(4,100 and I had 3,450)... another one of the stupid newbie POS teams that looked like this on the board:redyellowredredredredredredyellowyellowyellowyellowyellowyellowyellowyellow.I quit the game with 10mins left.. would I loose points form that on ladder or not?

if your team lost, you would lose points if you had been in the game for 2 minutes or more. If you're the top scorer for your teait's generally 0 ladder points but I have been in games where my score was high enough and there were enough players that I got a positive score while being on the losing team - go figure.
