im talking about the missions and anyway, i tried it in multiplayer practice, and i was actually healing the s and not sucking up their health. and the reason he gave you a red beam is because he's nod(dont say it aircraftkiller), and gdi engys have blue beams, and nod engys have red ones. the level where you fight with hotwire on your side, she doesnt hurt them, i kept shooting the guy, she kept healing him, so i had to snipe his face to kill him
