Tried to login, and I got a message saying, "Unable to connect to westwood online. Unable to connect to server" I tried looking for the wol xwis tool on www.strike-team.net but the file isn't on the download link anymore? does anyone know where I can find it?

It seems some people can't connect to xwis and some can, I'd suggest just waiting it out for now.

It was down for a while today.

Another fine job by the strike-team!
