I find it odd how you switch to free look when attacking infantry

A lot of people do that. Myself included. It's easier to hit infantry.

What I found odd about the video is the delay he gets when he kills someone. Like he will get a head shot but the person doesn't die until like a second later.

I switch to free-aim when attacking infantry aswell. And uhh I must've missed the point, but whatsup with the "body/headshots with tanks" part? Everyone you shoot stands still LOL your shooter is alright i guess

Probably has something to do with lag or the sound not being completely in sync with the video frames.

Lol, it's just hilarious, and unique for a video I guess.
