Well I don't know about now. But earlier it was bad, some guy called "jimbo1335" wouldn't snipe. He wanted to do "Rocket sniping."

So I did a little trick with him. I said I will trade a Mammoth Tank for a Stealth Tank. He fell for it 3 times. And banned.

I guess remote assistance, remote admin or whatever it was wasn't enabled. As I couldn't kick him out.

It should be on. I will be home in about 1 hour. He just made it to my "NEW" perm IP ban list.

Thanks.

Yup I started with a clean slate for a ban list. The first 2 people to get back on the list was jimbo1335 and wessxdog. They don't learn. BR is working. I had to restart it last night.

Good luck all.

K9 [BR] is down and ppl are still madd cheating. I tried to use the "endg" but that crashed [BR]. So you need to RESTART [BR]. And you'd better be quick about it before it says like this....
