Here is a question for the TOTAL NOOB who buys a Flame tank and leaves it out in the open...WHAT IF THE *****WERE YOU THINKING???? Situation: our base(Nod) was under attack and this individual bought a flame tank and just left it to repair the Hand of Nod. I made my break to get in the tank and was too late(BOINK!!!!!!) A GDI soldier got into it and destroyed our Air Strip because he blocked the door and no engines could get in to repair. And most of our base was out "Cowboying the Nation" When your off on your own and hear that your base is under attack maybe you should think to yourself "SELF... maybe I should go back and help?"In closing... Please when you buy a tank of any kind(GDI or Nod) get in the freakin thing! I know that you were trying to save the base but all you did was kill it more!!!

I actually did this last night on FIELDS. It was in the last minutes of the game and we trailed the whole game in points to Nod.We had just destroyed their Obelisk and we rushing like crazy to get the most points we could. So there I go in my Humvee, I entered Nod's base when I saw a Brand new flame tank by their Airfeild so I jumped out of my jeep and into the Flame tank and kept flamming the airfeild.Well my flame tank got destroyed and 5 seconds later the game ended with GDI winning...Yee Haa maybe the guy who bought the tank was running to hop in it but got picked off by a sniper? That happened to me, I was running to my newly bought light tank and got boinked- then some f-agg-ot named anakin( stupid f-uck noob) took it and just drove around like a retard, well it got pounded to 37 health and the p-ussy bailed, well I repaired it and destroyed some pesky Med. tanks with it

I did this last night on walls, as a hotwire, I jsut destroyed the refinery, found an open flame tank, repaired it, and got in just in time to boink someone racing for it. However I didn't destroy anything else so it wasn't me. I ALMOST destroyed the airfield, but not quite.

Sought of steering this thread back to the topic.....I once saw someone lose two Med tanks and a mammoth to the same Nod Stealth Black Hand. he parked in the exact same place (Under - near the GDI snipe pill-box). The most annoying thing was that whenever anyone tried to show him his mistake he just said, "Don't worry I'll watch for noddies this time"....

I once managed to steal a light tank while the engee was repairing it. Ran him over. I the ntook out the Air field with the tank. Same game, stole a buggy, killed 6 noddies. Then i was kicked.
