How can I play APB online without a Renegade CDkey, and why can I join servers through the ingame menu and not only by direct connect?

AFAIK, APB uses the Renegade key to play online (if you join through ingame). If you dont have renegade installed you have to use the launcher

Although what bugs me is that you say you can join through ingame, but you also ask how to play APB online without CD key???

EDIT: TR is going to have a small fix/feature to solve the key problem (i hope for everyone or atleast alot of people)

You can but you'll have to use the Launcher or anotehr way of DirectConnect (something like a shortcut suffix)
