IW just fucked over MW2 with no dedicated servers.

Well done IW, good job there.

Not awesome, but not too surprising either, given that consoles are beginning (if they haven't already) to usurp the PC as the major gaming medium.

Huh, if you search up "crack" on GameMonitor or GameTracker, you will find around 20-30 cracked servers filled with people. Now this is nothing compared to the "legal" servers that are filled and active in the list. It's more like 5-10%.

Official Forums were going crazy when everyone found out. I think it's bull shit, even though I don't have a gaming PC. I think the PC is ideal for FPS and killing that is bull shit. I would hope the industry isn't dead when I get the money to get a nice rig.

Damn there goes an eighth of some IW staff members wages

Maybe they'll make the money back on all the people that don't give two shits about playing on a custom dedi server and oh yeah....the ps3 and xbox 360 sales.
