Your FTP path should be relative to the main directory (this case: ftp42.bravehost.com)

Normally on such sites like that that hosts for more people the path would be /USERNAME/rank/ or something.

Also you must manually create the folders you want the FTP upload to place the files into, it will not do it automatically.

As for SSGM... BRenBot 1.52's full installer will install SSGM for you. What exactly are you having difficulty with regarding this?

i think i figured out my ftp problem i will check it out in a bit when i can get on my user account.
Ok i have the plugins working now my other thing is if i can't figure it out how do i get the uploaded files as html and not txt?

Ok so i got ssgm to work it installed a new copy of it over my copy.

How would i shut off Renguard all the way so it don't nag people about not having it?

In brenbot.cfg, disable the RG warnings and then apply what above poster said to commands.xml.

Also: read the readme.txt...
