I have it. Can't remember who posted it, but yeah, here.

I'll look for the source so I can credit it properly. If I recall, G1D posted a similar skin, and in the same thread someone posted an improved version. I doubt it was G1D himself, or if it was someone else, but yeah.

EDIT: oho, it was Seadust, my bad. A quick search for "cloud" in mod release forums coulda netted you this, too, though... took me less than a minute, lol.

Thanks.

Being the retard the I am, I searched for cloudlayer
The Chem trooper is a different story. I had it for several years. I actually still have the DDS files for it that I managed to recover after the wipe, but they're damaged :/.

LeeumDees and Gen_Blackys Map conversions both give that effect to the tiberium fields.
