I can't really know in advance if the communities are going to have a team on the match date and time. It is really not MY responsibility to help them get a team ready. It is my responsibility to remind them of the deadlines, and the community leaders and/or captains are the ones to sign their own people up and make sure they show up on the match day. Now that there are 4 teams left I am confident the leaders/captains will actually struggle to get teams for these matches as we're nearing the finals.

I will make it easy for you TD ^^

round 4

Roster post deadline: Friday, November 20th
Match day: Saturday, November 21st

Roster notes:
- If one team fails to post their roster IN THIS TOPIC before the deadline, they get disqualified and the other team will advance to round 5 vs Jelly.
- If both teams fail to post their roster IN THIS TOPIC before the deadline, they BOTH get disqualified and Jelly gets a BYE in round 5.

NE posted their roster, OS didnt

OS and NE must post their round 5 roster before the round 5 deadline as well, JUST IN CASE

Jelly vs NE cant be played, because no roster submitted.
NE is out of the tourney
Jelly to the loser bracket and goes to round 7.

-SoQ- vs CW.CC cant be played, because CW.CC didnt put a roster in time.
CW.CC is out of the tourney
-SoQ- advances to round 6

round 6
On the winner bracket side there are no teams for round 6.
On the loser bracket side there is only -SoQ-
-SoQ- advances to round 7

round 7
We have a final! -SoQ- vs Jelly on the 29th of november 2009

G?g

TD, we can make it to end this tourney before december 2009!

Those penalties for not posting the roster in time are OS vs NE (Round 4) exclusive.

I would like to ask the remaining three communuties to post their roster by the end of this day.

Why are these community's so retarded?
first with jelly, CW.cc was too late then Whiskey posted an essay about trying to get things done and they're like NAW i'd rather NOT play we'll prolly lose with a good cw.cc lineup.
Then soqwarlock makes an entire essay about him being too scared to play cw.cc (everyone kinda knows who's gonna win anyway).

I'm not playing in this tourny but i find the sportsmanship of these community's retarded.
cw.cc even got ddossed n stuff.

If you visited this section more often, you would know I wrote bullshit.
It has never been in former rounds that posting a roster too late would mean that clan is out of the tourney.
And in a other topic I actually wrote its my idea that clans get there chances in playing each other,
even if that is after a deadline.
So dont call me or -SoQ- retarded.
And I dunno who will win, but we sure are gonna play cw.cc, np.

Ofcourse, iam trying to make a point that ppl should try to act in order to do things in time as requested.
I could do that in a few sentences, but was bored and had the time. Blame me for that. hmm.. a essay. Feels like a compliment though!

if you want to play then get back up to play us; if you're as good as you think you are it should be no problem we're not hiding from cw.cc, we showed up when we were supposed to

i tried messaging MoMo yesterday telling him to post a roster but it was probably way too late his time

NE is still in Round 4, and we posted our roster for Round 4.

We will don't know who will advance to round 5 in the NE vs OS game, because TD said we could still play them (they posted their roster this morning) which is why we didn't post it in the Round 5 thread. Why would we put it if we can't guarantee that we're even in Round 5?

NE is still in.

I've advanced NE, but can reverse this action if you still want to play them today, since they did post their roster a bit after the deadline.

I asked for round 5 rosters because it will be the day right after, which is tomorrow. Seeing as I didn't know who would advance I just asked for both OS and NE to post their rosters for that round as well.

Your choice, fobby. Advance or give OS a chance? No reply = advance.
