I have seen this in movies and jokes and mostly ones that involve a blal ram where a Guy holds up a sign that says "john 3:16" or a guy with a clown hair and red ball nose hold up the sign, I dont get it, google is no help, can someone tell me why? why they do it, whats it mean, whats the joke.

Maybe it's just out right making fun of Christians? How about a link to what you're talking about?

So you're going to a massive sporting event that will likely be covered by TV crews who scan the crowd. You're also a devout Christian, who wants to spread the word of your faith to as many people as possible. You have a large white paper and a few sharpies.

What do you do?
