Hey guys, just got my own laptop finally, and first game i got was renegade. lol

A few people may remember me way back, like 3 years ago. I was into a few clans, map making, and of course, playing mad renegade.

Just stopping in to say high and let myself be known

It still is! For hardcore serious business clans: www.clanwars.cc . For fun people to play with: there's still quite a lot of different clans left .

I've played Renegade on my netbook and got an awesome average five FPS on islands in the tunnels with about eight people ingame. :[

Not all laptops are shit. Laptops nowadays can play Renegade just as well as any desktops around.
