works SWEET for NOD. In the map field, in front of the pillbox area is a "wall" that is sort of slanted so ur tank to drive on it, literally, basically say a medium tank is driving a road near that area (or a mammoth) while circling it to destroy it, you can basically "walk" on the walls to get behind their tank and keep shooting it. Most n00bs wont turn around to kill you, and some people who don't have htier camera locked to turret can't shoot u while they're behind you, works VERY well. make sure camera is locked to turret though

The Nod/NOD should not serve to distract us from the fact that the original poster of this message has no English grammar skills.The punctuation police should execute him on sight.
