ok mates..

TnG

(Tellys next Generation Videos)

well... i decided to make newer, faster vids. i wanna change the style a bit, but the "Telly-Style" should be unmistakable.

i already made a video prototype. i know i used to much transitions in that vid, but what should i change also? (i wont hear things like: change the music. trance and metal stays.)

bring some constructive points pls.

greetz telly ^^

(btw: i`ll add the new videos in my old videolist-topic)

only thing i don't like is the random frame flipping thing during fights. If those are separate recordings at least use a smoother transition.

P.S: If you use free aim (v) while you're a gdi soldier = rape

Free aim as gdi soldier is overrated.

yer the transitions in the first clips are to much. its on the same map, i only did cut the useless scenes out and would make some changes, therefore the transitions.

thx for your input.

I would of just used a simple phase transition between the seperate clips in the first scene.
Good job.
