And yeah I don't really like Good-One-Driver's skin tbh, but that's my opinion...

Anyway,

Good-one-driver, you have yourown topic so it's unneeded to post your skin in someone's topic that isn't about you....

actually get an sbh, switch to your timed c4 and run around. Basically a locator for anyone who has their timed equipped. Also, get a tech and equip your remote or timed then get in a stank and drive. Your "light" will leave a trail behind the stank revealing it to who ever is using this "skin/mod"
